CHICAGO JAZZ FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES NEW PRESENTING SPONSOR 31ST ANNUAL LABOR DAY TRADITION, SEPTEMBER 4-6 IN GRANT PARK

The Chicago Jazz Festival is pleased to announce its brand new presenting sponsor, CareFusion. This year's festival includes headliners Gonzalo Rubalcaba Quintet, Dave Holland Big Band and The Arthur Hoyle Orchestra led by Muhal Richard Abrams.

In a year where many festivals across the nation have been cancelled or put on hiatus, the 31st Annual Chicago Jazz Festival, September 4-6 in Grant Park, continues to thrive. The Chicago Jazz Festival presented by CareFusion is one of a series of festivals that the company is sponsoring as it announces its new brand and efforts to recognize individuals and organizations working to improve patient care. The new medical technology company combines its proven technologies with information to help measurably improve the delivery of patient care.

"There is a clear connection between jazz and medicine that provides the perfect opportunity to launch our new brand, raise funds for and awareness of patient safety and help support and preserve the arts," said David Schlotterbeck, CEO of CareFusion. "Both jazz and the practice of medicine embrace innovation, performance and change."

Megan McDonald, executive director of the Mayor's Office of Special Events, stated, "Keeping our events and festivals such as this great heritage event free admission is one of our top priorities and this new partnership with CareFusion helps us meet that goal."

The complete line up for the three-day festival that includes music on three stages as well as new areas devoted to the Young Lions of Jazz and the Wine Oasis presented by Wine Australia is available on line at www.chicagojazzfestival.us

The Chicago Jazz Festival is presented by CareFusion and sponsored by the Chicago Jazz Partnership, ABSOLUT, American Airlines, Best Buy, Chicago Jazz Magazine, Chicago Transit Authority, Chicago Tribune, CLTV-ChicagoLand's Television, Communications Direct, DownBeat Magazine, Essex Inn, FlashCash, Heineken, Hinckley Springs, Hyatt Regency McCormick Place, JazzTimes Magazine, LaGrou Distribution System, Pepsi-Cola and WGN-Television.
